Please don't laugh

$1000 today and it will increase daily.

 Yes but it was more of a gesture and only $1,000. He will continue to sent something as we finalize the plan.

Thanks for the progress report. Todd mentioned in an earlier email that you started wiring some funds today. Can you confirm amount?

Thx.

Hello Willy,

I'm sorry for the lack of communication today. I just got off the road on a trip to LA. Todd spoke with the Attorney and they are working to get NYSE approval on the Note. I'm told we are making progress and Todd will be talking with Henry the attorney again tonight so I should have timing updates to share tomorrow. The price of bitcoin and the price of our stock both went up today so that brought us more cash. As a result we are working on the right strategy to get you paid faster on the Cash side of the equation.

Todd should have more information to me by mid day tomorrow which I'll update you on accordingly.

Thank you,

Darren Magot

Subject: Call

If you are not able to make the call after 6:45 PST, please email the basic details and include how much you will wire and when.

Although Todd is overseas we can't let that affect this situation to drag on without showing progress.
It was extremely worrisome when you said that there was no liquidity to wire a mere $27K.
